

Prof. Dr. Jan vom Brocke

Short CV, last update Nov 15 2017

Jan vom Brocke is a professor for Information Systems at the University of Liechtenstein. He is the Hilti Endowed Chair of Business Process Management, Director of the Institute of Information Systems, and Vice-President Research and Innovation of the University.

Jan has published more than 300 papers in, among others, Management Information Systems Quarterly (MISQ), Journal of Management Information Systems (JMIS), European Journal of Information System (EJIS), Information Systems Journal (ISJ), Communications of the ACM (CACM) as well as practitioner journals such as Management Information Systems Quarterly Executive (MISQe) and MIT Sloan Management Review (SMR).

He is author and editor of 34 books, including the International Handbook on Business Process Management (with M. Rosemann), BPM. Driving Innovation in a Digital World (with T. Schmiedel) and BPM Cases. Digital Innovation and Business Transformation in Practice (with J. Mending). His research has attracted over 30 Million EUR in funding and has been awarded with over 20 international awards. His group is recognized by press releases by, among others, Wall Street Journal, Daily Mail, and Telegraph.

Jan has teaching experience from 24 universities in 13 countries, including many of the Financial Times Top 50 Business Schools such as the University of St.Gallen in Switzerland, the Vlerick Business School in Belgium, the University of Warwick in the UK, and the Smurfit School of Business in Ireland. He is also an active supporter of the AAU IS PhD program at the University of Addis Ababa in Ethiopia.

Jan is an invited speaker and serves as trusted advisor to many DAX 30 and Fortune 500 companies as well as governmental institutions across Europe. He has held various editorial roles and leadership positions in Information Systems research and education.

See Jan`s personal website at: www.janvombrocke.com